Note: Mississippi Baptist Seminary primarily serves part-time, non-traditional students. During the reporting periods shown, the Seminary did not enroll any first-time, full-time associate or bachelor's degree students. As a result, standard fall-to-fall retention rates for full-time cohorts are not applicable. Student persistence is instead reflected through course completion and certificate/degree completion metrics. Graduate programs are not offered at the Seminary.

Note: The Seminary's student body consists primarily of part-time, non-traditional learners and certificate students.
